

ship should have been made a main point of sanitary importance. We are on the fourth day of quarantine. In spite of such a condition of things, the passengers should be obliged to remain in quarantine on board the Normanna, the undersigned deem it their duty to demand the execution of such sanitary measures under the supervision of official experts, as are apt to remove efficiently the danger which, under the given circumstances, the occupants of the ship are constantly exposed to.

Henry Howard, of Port Huron, Mich., who is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel waiting for the release of his family from the steamship Normanna, has received two letters from his wife, written on the 8th inst., which only reached him this morning. Following are extracts from the letters:

"Dr. Jenkins was only here once yesterday. Our sick and dead are allowed to stay here too long. Supplies run low. Provision has not been made for the sick. They have sent us no preventives, disinfectants or counsel as to precaution. If any of us needed a physician we would have to call on the young and perhaps inexperienced doctor on board ship. They ought to send us a doctor to look us over and remain with us."

"Water supply exhausted last night. Captain said he telegraphed for more water for water, but none came up to bedtime last night. He says he is powerless; all depend on New York officials."

"The captain told Hesse last night we were not safe on this boat one minute, and said it was a privilege to be here. I see by the papers they say we gave Dr. Jenkins a vote of thanks. It is false. We cannot see that he is doing anything."

"If we are such pests, why do we come on board and have dinner with the captain?"

"The only thing we had for breakfast was stale eggs, toast, coffee and honey; but that is the last we have on the ship."

"Many little children are crying for water. No new York and no water. Want doctors. I mean it. We want food, water, disinfectants, carbolic soap, etc."

Among the detained passengers on the Normanna is United States Sub-Treasurer R. N. Aldrich, of Boston. Officers and members of the Boston Board of Trade telegraphed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Spaulding asking that Federal authorities interfere in behalf of the quarantined passengers. Today they received reply that Secretary Foster was in New York endeavoring to do all in his power to accomplish their release from the ship.

RICH MAN SENT TO JAIL.

Sixty Days at Hard Labor Without the Option of a Fine.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
St. Paul, Sept. 9.—Judge Twy, of the Municipal Court, yesterday sentenced a leading citizen of St. Paul, worth $100,000, to sixty days in the workhouse without the option of a fine.

A few weeks ago Ninon J. Ahern, owner of large tracts of real estate here and financial agent for several large firms, was in a suit in court that he had not acted as witness to an instrument which Meutzler had signed as a notary public.

Mr. Heilm had Mr. Ahern arrested for criminal libel. The evidence was so overwhelming against the capitalist that the court ordered him sent to the workhouse for sixty days.

The Wetmore's Crew All Saved.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Portland, Ore., Sept. 9.—The crew of the whaler steamer Wetmore, which went ashore at North Spit Bar on the Oregon coast, have all been saved. The steamer is a total wreck.

Drowned While in Bathing.

James Clary, seventeen years old, of 440 West Forty-ninth street, was drowned yesterday morning while bathing at the foot of West Fifth street. The body was recovered.

One of Dr. Cronin's Slayers Ill.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Joliet, Ill., Sept. 9.—Martin Burke, one of the convicted Cronin murderers, is ill, and, while no immediate fatal results are anticipated, it is acknowledged that his condition is serious.

SHOT DOWN BY HIS FRIEND.

Owen Collins Probably Fatally Wounded in a Beer Quarrel.

Owen Collins is in Manhattan Hospital today with a bullet wound in his abdomen, which will probably cause his death. The police are looking for George Becker, who, they say, is also known as Marks, and who escaped after shooting Collins twice late last night in one hundred and Tenth street, between the Boulevard and Amsterdam avenue. Collins lives at 218 West one hundred and Tenth street. Becker or Marks drives an ash cart and lives at 214 West One Hundred and Ninth street. The two have known each other for a long time.

The shooting occurred after a quarrel as to who should buy the beer next. Collins and Becker got into a fight over it.

Becker suddenly whipped out a revolver and fired two shots at Collins, who fell to the ground. One of the bullets had struck him in the abdomen on the left side and the other passed through his right hand.

Before any one could stop him Becker ran away and made his escape. One of the bullets had struck him in the abdomen on the left side and the other passed through his right hand.

Gov. Boyd, of Nebraska, Sends to It a Check for $100—Other Contributions.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 7.—Contributions through World-Herald yesterday and to-day amounted to $135.20, making our total to date $51.11. This includes $100 from Nebraska's Democratic Governor, James E. Boyd, who wrote this letter:

GILBERT M. HICKMAN, Editor "World-Herald."

DEAR SIR: It affords me much pleasure to hand you herewith my check for $100 as my contribution to the Western Campaign Fund which you are raising for legitimate expenditures in assisting democracy to carry the West for tariff reform and economical government. I believe that there are a number of Western States keenly alive to the issue of tariff reform; that if the facts can be properly brought to the attention of the people, the cause of democracy will thrive. I regret that my means will not permit of my making a larger contribution at this time, but I feel it to be my duty to do this and deem it the duty of every Democrat to do likewise in proportion to his means. Yours, etc.,

JAK E. BOYD.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 7.—The Ithaca Democrat today received for the Western Democratic Campaign Fund $5 from a Seneca County Democrat and $1 cash.

Twenty Clubs Contesting.

Increasing Interest Shown in the Race for the Ten Prize Banners.

The political clubs have this week shown more activity than at any previous time during the Presidential campaign, and the prospects are that the next few days will stimulate them all into active participation in the canvass. Twenty important clubs are now participating in the banner contest, which will close the 1st of next month. When the silver, gold-fringed banners will be distributed to those subscribing the largest aggregate amounts to the Western Democratic Campaign Fund. The name of the Tammany Association of the First Assembly District has been added to the list. This is the organization with which Register Frank T. Fitzgerald is identified, and it is one of the strongest of the kind in the city. Mr. Fitzgerald is the only New Yorker who is an ex-congressman without ever having sat in the House of Representatives. That was because he is such a popular man that he was elected to his present position before he had a chance to take his seat at Washington. Under the new apportionment his district now extends to Spring street, west of Broadway from the Battery, besides taking in a small portion east of Broadway. Here he is all-powerful among the influential residents, and his friends are confident that his maintenance this year will show bigger results than ever before.

Yesterday Mr. Fitzgerald said with an air of confidence that this portion of the city would give a bigger majority for Cleveland than any other portion of the city. He was a candidate before. He was so certain of attaining this position, he believed not only in winning, but in being ready to be two to one on it.

Mr. Fitzgerald, who is hardly yet thirty, is a young man, but not only in winning, but in being ready to be two to one on it.

"The World" asks your subscription to the Western Democratic Campaign Fund. Scores of Democratic newspapers in other parts of the country have also opened their columns to receive contributions. All the money raised will be expended legitimately by the advice of a committee of leading Western Democrats in waging a vigorous educational campaign in those Western States which have gone Republican in elections hitherto, but now give the strongest indications of a tendency towards Democracy and Tariff Reform.

The larger the number of subscriptions, regardless of their size, the greater will be the moral effect. Will you help if you send a check, a registered letter, a money-order or cash to the address given above. Mr. Sharon says that owing to his views on the silver question he cannot remain on the Committee.

EXPRESS TRAIN HELD UP.

Shots Are Exchanged, but the Robbers Secure No Booty.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
GETTYSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8.—The 11:40 south bound passenger train on the Santa Fe was held up by train robbers at Wharton, in the Cherokee strip, a station twenty miles north of this city.

Three men ordered Fireman Ross and Engineer Spoonhauger to step down. They led them to the door of the express car and told them to "batter it in."

The fireman was struck on the head with a crowbar and the engineer was struck on the head with a crowbar. The door was broken open and the robbers entered only to find the safe empty. No effort was made to rob the passengers.
